EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Two cows, Rani and Laxmi, who've been let loose by their owner as they can no longer produce milk, trying to figure out how they'll cope with the ban on the use of single-use plastic (SUP).

Rani: It's a good thing they're banning the use of the stuff because it's got to the stage where you can barely see our planet for all the plastic bags that have been dumped on it.

Laxmi: You're right. It is a very good thing. At least us Indian street cows can say we've long been doing our bit for the environment by eating the darn things.

Rani: Well, we didn't have much choice in the matter, as there wasn't anything else for us to eat.

Laxmi: True. What did we eat before they invented plastic bags?

Rani: I'm told it was things like grass, and leaves, and stuff like that, before all of that got buried under the plastic avalanche.

Laxmi: Do you think all that stuff, grass, and leaves, and things, will come back after at least some of the plastic that's covering them is gone?

Rani: I hope so. But I don't think that'll help us street cows very much.

Laxmi: Won't help us very much? Why's that?

Rani: Because after all these years of having had to make plastic bags our staple diet our digestive tracts mightn't be able to cope with nature-made things like grass and leaves instead of human-made things like plastic. Knowing humans, they'll soon give us plenty to eat by way of human-made plastic substitutes, like paper and cloth and other throwaways, with which to litter landscape.

Laxmi: So instead of eating plastic we'll get to eat plastic substitutes?

Rani: That's right. For us street cows, the moo things change the moo they'll remain the same...

Seat alert to help passengers avoid crying babies

Tokyo: Japan Airlines (JAL) has introduced an online booking tool that indicates where babies and toddlers are seated. If passengers with children aged between eight days and two years old reserve their seat, a child icon will appear in the aeroplane plan - giving passengers who have not selected their seats the opportunity to sit further away.

However, the airline was keen to point out that the new feature does not guarantee passengers will be out of earshot of a screaming child. It also said the icon would not appear if passengers book their flights through a third party or are part of a tour group, or if there is a last-minute change of aircraft.

Devi Navaratri Celebration - Day 1
Today's Deity : Gowri
Discourse by His Holiness

Kuṇḍali kumāri kuṭilē chandi carācara Savitri Chāmunde
Guṇini guharaṇi guhye gurumurte tvām namāmi kāmākshi

O Divine Mother! You are the Kundalini serpent that is coiled. To remain angry is your nature. You are the mother for all moving and non-moving entities. You are endowed with attributes. You are the destroyer of demons Chanda and Munda. You are the form of Guha, You are the arani (used to ignite fire). O Mother! O resident of the cave (Guha)! I bow to you in reverence.

The Divine Mother is known as Sampradaayeshwari. Sampradaya i.e, traditions passed down from generations, are deeply loved by Her. Those who abide by these customs and traditions are very dear to Her and hence, very quickly She is pleased with them.

As the inner Self for every entity, She naturally is the dearest relative for one and all. She responds instantly when called and fulfills the desires of the devotee.

'Patram pushpam phalam toyam- i.e., leaf, flower, fruit or water, anything that is offered lovingly to Her is accepted by Her. She considers even a trivial insignificant offering made by the devotee to be a supreme offering and hence lovingly accepts the same.

When we are totally submerged in enjoying worldly comforts, She gently awakens us. When we are engulfed with sorrows She cajoles and pacifies us. Thus, in both the situations, She remains by our side holding our hand and instills courage into us.

She is the foundational support and the refuge for every living entity in this creation. Hence it is imperative to develop implicit faith in that Mother who is our dearest well-wisher. With feelings of total devotion, we must worship Her.

When we lovingly call out to Her as 'Mother', the necessity of calling out to a mother (worldly mother) no longer exists. This is because with this call She merges us into herself sparing us from the shackles of rebirth. No rebirth implies the necessity of drinking mother's milk no longer arises. We obtain relief from rebirths.

Yet, the chance to think or offer worship to such a Divine Mother is not so easy! Not everyone obtains such fortune. Only after the completion of innumerable births, only after having abundantly worshipped other Gods, the entity is bestowed with the rare fortune of offering worship to Mother Goddess! This was stated by Lord Hayagriva to Maharishi Agastya.

Srimata, the Supreme Mother, is an embodiment of both Goddesses Lakshmi and Saraswati. Hence, by worshipping Her, we earn the grace of Mothers Lakshmi and Saraswati. Furthermore, we are bestowed with eternal bliss.

In order to make known to this world, the supremacy and glory of this Divine Mother, in order to ensure that the denizens of this world understand and worship Her, and realizing that Her grace is extremely crucial for the sustenance of this creation, Maharishi Agastya worshipped Lord Hayagriva.

This prayer resulted in Srividya upasana, the elaborate worship of the Divine Mother, becoming popular all through the world. The world got to understand about Mother Goddess and of Her glory.

The truth is that we are immortal. Due to ignorance and having forgotten the real truth, we consider ourselves to be entities subject to death. Srimata drives away this ignorance. Filling us completely with knowledge, she makes known to us that we are immortal.

This Supreme Mother enables us to conquer time. She also enables us to conquer lust and other desires. In this context, let us understand a secretive conversation that took place between Shiva and Parvati.

At one time, Lord Brahma accompanied by all the Devatas went to Kailasa and prayed to Lord Shiva, 'O Lord who has conquered death (Mrutyunjaya)! With your gaze you have burnt down the God of cupid. With your leg you have shoved away the Lord of time. Hence there is none greater than You in creation'- having thus praised the Lord, they returned to their abodes.

Shiva was supremely pleased with these praises. He looked at the Divine Mother in great delight. She looked at him and laughed. Shiva was angered. 'Why do you laugh mockingly at me?'- he asked. She replied, 'My Lord, I do not know of any great achievement that you have accomplished. Hence I am unable to contain my laughter.'

He said, 'Why do you say that? I was the one who kicked the Lord of time with my feet'. She replied, 'I agree you kicked the Lord of time. But it is important to know with which leg you kicked him. Please elaborate'.

The Lord innocently replied, 'Why? I kicked him with my left foot'. Mother Goddess replied, 'But your left leg is actually my leg. That is why I am laughing'. (The left half of Lord Shiva's body is Mother Parvati).

Hearing this, Shiva too began to laugh. He said, 'I understand. I forgot that aspect completely. This left leg is your leg'.

From this it is evident that Shiva and Shakti are not different entities but that they have a non-dual existence. What is important is to realize is that by worshipping Mother Goddess, one attains victory over time and over all forms of desires. This Divine Mother Srimata showers such crucial boons upon the devotee who lovingly worships Her. She takes responsibility for His wellbeing.

May all your desires be fulfilled with that Mother's grace! May Her grace flow towards all of you!

Rain water harvesting
need of the hour atop Hill

Sir,

It was indeed heartening to read that there will be no water crisis atop Chamundi Hill (SOM dated Sept.23). Efforts of the District Administration in this regard are commendable.

But nowhere in the report there is anything mentioned about harvesting the rain water. Chamundi Hill being a hilly forest region, gets ample rainfall which if harvested properly can meet the demands of the visitors to a large extent.

Measures have to be taken at least now to adopt rain water harvesting techniques to fill the huge tanks built recently.

Dasara: Fix direction indicators on KRS-JLB Road junction

Sir,

During Dasara period there will be a heavy flow of tourists coming from KRS Road towards Mysuru city. There are no direction indicators on this stretch at the junction of KRS Road and JLB Road. Tourists will definitely get confused without knowing which direction to follow to reach their destinations.

A large permanent multi-lingual sign-board fixed on the Railway over-bridge, before Mandovi Motors, will be of immense help in guiding the tourists. In the absence of a proper direction indicator, tourists are likely to block the traffic before or after the traffic signal, while enquiring for the directions.

- Parking charges from Rs. 25 to Rs. 50; tourist vehicles Rs. 100
- Bridge toll fee near KRS increased from Rs.50 for cars up to Rs. 200 for heavy trucks

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (BCT)- From this Dasara, get ready to pay more to visit the iconic Brindavan Gardens at the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam as the authorities have increased the entry fee. At present, each visitor has to pay Rs. 20 and children have to pay Rs. 5.

The Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Limited (CNNL) that manages the KRS Dam has hiked the entry fee for the tourist destination from Oct. 1. According to the CNNL, the entry fee has been raised from Rs. 20 to Rs. 50 for adults, and from Rs. 2 to Rs. 10 for students. Vehicle parking charges have also been increased from Rs. 25 to Rs. 50, and for heavy tourist vehicles up to Rs. 100.

The toll fee of the bridge near the reservoir has increased from Rs. 50 for cars up to Rs. 200 for heavy trucks. It may be recalled here that the CNNL had, in May this year, sent a proposal to the State Government to approve the fee hike. "With shrinking revenues and a huge task of maintaining the KRS and Brindavan Gardens, we are forced to revise the rates that have not been raised since many years. As the rates were not revised, no agency came forward for tenders for the collection of user fee, entry fee, vehicle parking fee and toll collection at the downstream bridge," officials had said. The annual footfall to the KRS Dam and the Brindavan Gardens has shown a steady increase over the years. The Dam's peaceful atmosphere, breathtaking views and the beautiful Mughal Gardens are attracting tourists from far and wide who want to spend some quality time.

On an average, over 10,000 tourists visit KRS every day and the numbers see an increase during Dasara and peak tourism season. Taking the statistics of the last five years, over 30 lakh tourists have visited on an average every year.

The Dam collects over Rs. 5 crore entry fee every year. The Dam authorities get an annual income of over Rs. 1.20 crore by the sale of vehicle parking tickets. The combined annual income through entry tickets and parking tickets is about Rs. 6.20 crore.

Mandya man flees with Rs. 99 lakh ATM cash in Bengaluru

Bengaluru, Sept. 29- The Bengaluru Police are on the lookout for the driver of a cash logistics management company after he allegedly drove away with Rs. 99 lakh in cash on Friday.

The accused, 23-year-old Pawan, is a native of Mandya and had joined the company only a week ago. According to the Police, he was tasked to drive three company staff who would fill cash into the ATMs of ICICI Bank in the east division of the city.

The incident took place when the driver, along with three other staff of the cash management company, reached the ICICI ATM kiosk on Kamanahalli Road around 4.30 pm on Friday.

While the two gunmen and the custodians entered the ATM, Pawan drove away with the van. The three initially thought he was taking time to park the vehicle. When he did not return, they alerted the Police, who later found the vehicle abandoned in Lingarajapuram Flyover.

According to the Police, the accused fled with the amount of Rs. 99 lakh, which was outside the locker in the van. Although there was more cash in the vehicle, the accused could not open the locker. Speaking on the issue, Rahul Kumar Shahapurwad, Deputy Commissioner of Police (East Division) said, "We have some clues about his whereabouts. We are confident that he will be nabbed soon."

150 YEARS OF CELEBRATING THE MAHATMA

Mysore's beautiful Arches and Gateways now an eyesore

The pillars at Babu Jagjivan Ram Circle near Railway Station where the lamps have stopped glowing.

Damaged and defunct lamps at Ayurveda College Circle.

Damaged pillar of DC's office Gateway from DD Urs Road.

Mysuru, Sept.29- Apart from being home to many heritage buildings and structures of historical and architectural value, Mysuru is also known for its majestic arches, pillars and gateways. These architectural marvels, which are a treat to watch, are the gifts from Wadiyars, the erstwhile rulers of Mysuru.

Having given importance to art and culture, Wadiyars made sure to leave behind many impressive structural marvels and they today stand as a royal stamp, reflecting their grandeur and aesthetic sense.

Arches and Gateways add value to heritage structures and buildings that were built during the princely rule. Unfortunately now these Arches and Gateways which were once significant have lost its sheen and have become an eyesore to the visitors who visit Mysuru. The sad state of affairs is reflecting badly on the Administration that is spending crores of rupees for Dasara.

During my childhood, whenever Dasara festival was nearing, these Arches and Gateways used to get a facelift as it used to get repainted and the gate lamps would be replaced with new bulbs. But from past five years, these structures are being neglected.

The whole city is illuminated with colourful lights covering more than 95 Circles but whereas these structures have lost its importance and are left in the dark, in spite of many complaints to the higher authorities.

One of the most prominent Gateways in city is the Lalitha Mahal Palace Gateway that could be seen on T. Narasipur Road which is at threat as neither the Heritage Department nor the district authorities have secured it.

There are a lot of heavy-duty vehicles seen on this road travelling at a very high speed, and even the gates are damaged by these over-speeding vehicles. One wrong move by these break-neck-speed drivers will make this heritage structure crumble like a pack of cards.

Many lamps of Gateways have stopped glowing and many weeds are growing on structures. Arches and Gateways are also the major contributor to the heritage tag of Mysuru city along with the Palaces. So I request the authorities concerned to restore these magnificent Arches and Gateways which also contributes to the pride of the city. And also maintain these structures not only during Dasara but throughout the year.

Some time back, in a bid to further boost Mysuru's claim to being a 'Heritage City,' the Tourism Department had proposed the construction of four heritage arches at its four entrances.

The objective of the proposal was to give all visitors to the city a glimpse of the city's rich historic legacy. Personally I feel that the Department must restore the already existing and neglected Arches and Gateways before they take up the construction of heritage entrance arches at the city entrances.

The ghazal maestro will perform at Mysore Palace on the first day of Dasara Cultural Programmes this evening, against the backdrop of the illuminated Palace. Excerpts…

By S.N. Venkatnag Sobers

Star of Mysore (SOM): Is this your first visit to Mysuru?

Pankaj Udhas: No, I have been here before. Just few minutes back I was trying to recall the last time I visited this city. I guess it must be around eight to nine years back, for the same event.

SOM: What's your first impression about Mysuru?

Pankaj Udhas: Well, I have fond memories of the city. Of course, things have changed now. It was way back in 1970s that I visited the city for first time as a student of St. Xavier's College in Mumbai. Our college tour started from Bengaluru and the next destination was this beautiful and historic city. After staying here for a few days and visiting majority of the tourist spots, we travelled to Bandipur and Ooty.

SOM: Does Mysuru fascinate you?

Pankaj Udhas: Though the city has changed a lot, it has always maintained its essence and beauty. People want to visit Mysuru to experience its rich culture and tradition. Mysuru has always held an influential position in the world.

SOM: How is it to be performing at Mysore Palace after a gap of eight years?

Pankaj Udhas: Well, there are a few cities and venues which are special for an artiste. They generate those vibes to connect more to the audience. I think Mysuru and the Royal Palace are among those places. And to be performing at the Mysore Palace is an honour for any artiste.

SOM: India is truly blessed to have ghazal maestros like you, Jagjit Singh (now no more), Talat Aziz and many more. However, do you feel that ghazal has lost popularity now?

Pankaj Udhas: I would rather say that it is off the focus for now. I was performing at a famous venue in Delhi on Friday and the auditorium was jam-packed with 2,500 people who had bought tickets to watch show. So, I would say that ghazals are still popular and people still love this form of music. But now, it is known fact that music has changed a lot not only in India but worldwide.

SOM: What's your take on modern day music?

Pankaj Udhas: Music has always been a combination of good poetry, good melody and wonderful singing. I think all three are the soul of a good song. Unfortunately, what has happened is that music across the world has changed directions and lacks good poetry and melody. I personally feel that we are going through a phase, not only in India but all over the world, where music has become youth-oriented. What we are listening today, be it in Bollywood or anywhere, there is neither melody nor poetry. I think sooner or later, the golden era of good music will make a comeback.

SOM: You being a science student, how did music come in to your family with both your elder brothers Manhar Udhas and Nirmal Udhas also involved in ghazal and playback singing?

Pankaj Udhas: It's a long story. All I can say is that it was my father Keshubhai Udhas who influenced us to take up music. He used to play a musical instrument Dilruba, a string instrument played using a bow, as a hobby and my mother Jituben Udhas, though did not pursue it professionally, was a good singer. With both of them involved in music, it generated an atmosphere which got us hitched to music.

> "I personally feel that we are going through a phase, not only in India but all over the world, where music has become youth-oriented. What we are listening today, be it in Bollywood or anywhere, there is neither melody nor poetry. I think sooner or later, the golden era of good music will make a comeback.

SOM: What special is in-store for Mysureans this evening?

Pankaj Udhas: God has been kind to me over a period of time (40 years). I have been fortunate enough to release a number of albums apart from contributing to Bollywood music as well. I would first look to sing those numbers which the audience want me to perform and of course I would also want to sing some of my favourites as well.

SOM: Your message for Mysureans on the occasion of Dasara?

Pankaj Udhas: Dasara as we all know is victory of good over evil. It is a reminder to everybody that good always wins and the evil doesn't last forever.

SOM: There is one movement in our country that has been propagating a blanket ban on Pakistani artistes. What's your take?

Pankaj Udhas: It is very complex political issue and difficult to comment because I do believe that Indian side has solid reasons to say what they are saying. If you recall, Pakistani artistes have been visiting India for a long time now. Latest artistes being Rahat Fateh Ali Khan, Atif Aslam and others have made their names through Hindi cinema. India has been very kind to them and there must have been a strong reason for our country to have taken such a stand.

SOM: Thank you for your time.

Pankaj Udhas: You are welcome.

Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa inaugurates 10-day Dasara festival

Taking strong exception to the attempts being made to commercialise Chamundi Hill, Dr. Bhyrappa appealed to the Government to save the Hill from destruction.

Kayaka Nishte (work ethics)

Bhyrappa, who is known for his vociferous comments and don't-care attitude, touched upon 12th century reformer Basavanna's preachings and said, "In India, if at all there are people who don't have work ethics, they are politicians. Politicians are unprincipled and do not follow the "Kayakave Kailasa" (work is worship) as preached by Basavanna," he told the VVIPs on stage, all of them who were politicians.

Pointing out that farmers are at the core of 'Kayaka Samaja', as they take to fields even before sunrise, Bhyrappa regretted that politicians have destroyed the work ethics of farmers by luring them into petty politics during elections and after.

Belief in God

Asserting that no one can say that he (Bhyrappa) is not a believer of God, Bhyrappa maintained that some rationalists may not believe in the existence of God, but it was left to their choice.

On women and gender

Bhyrappa recalled the recent row over allowing women irrespective of age group to Sabarimala Ayyappa Swamy Temple in Kerala. "The Communist Government in Kerala should not have intervened in the matters of faith", said Bhyrappa.

There is a myth that the present society is misogynist. In reality, it is false to construe like that as women have taken lead in many fields. For example, girl students enrol in large numbers against male for professional courses. "We offer our first prayers to Goddess (Hennu Devathe) as we see nature in the form of a female. Women are given a special space in all matters and it was not correct to say that women are victims of gender inequality," he said.

Earlier, Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa, accompanied by his wife Saraswathi and Chief Minister Yediyurappa were given 'Poornakumba' welcome to the Chamundeshwari temple, where they offered prayers to the deity.

Deputy Chief Minister Govind Karjol, District Minister V. Somanna, Union Ministers D.V. Sadananda Gowda, Pralhad Joshi and Suresh Angadi, State Tourism Minister C.T. Ravi, MP Pratap Simha, MLAs G.T. Devegowda, Tanveer Sait, S.A. Ramdas, L. Nagendra, B. Harshavardhan and C.S. Niranjan Kumar, MLC K.T. Poornima, City Police Commissioner K.T. Balakrishna, SP C.B. Ryshyanth, MUDA Commissioner P.S. Kantharaj, MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hedge and other officials were present. Shocked by husband's death, woman jumps into river along with children and pets

Mysuru, Sept. 29 (RK&BCT)- Unable to bear the death of her husband, a woman from city along with her two children jumped into the Nethravathi River in Mangaluru. Though the woman was rescued by local fishermen, she breathed her last in a hospital. Search is on for the two children.

The woman has been identified as 57-year-old Kavitha Mandanna (Puchimada) and her children are 29-year-old Kaushik and 27-year-old Kalpitha. They are the residents of Vijayanagar Fourth Stage in city. The woman's husband 65-year-old Kishan Mandanna (Kalmadanda) had died of a heart attack on Sept.27 and the family was unable to bear the shock.

According to the Police, Kavitha, Kaushik and Kalpitha left Kishan's body in their house with a note saying that they are unable to lead their life without Kishan. Later, the trio left the house keys outside the house. The family hailed from Virajpet and was settled in Mysuru.

They left their home along with their pet dogs in their car and headed towards Mangaluru. According to Bantwal Police and local residents, the car reached Panemangaluru Bridge on Nethravathi River in Bantwal Taluk last night and after ensuring that there is no traffic on the stretch, all the three jumped into the river along with their pet dogs at 10.30 pm.

However, this was spotted by a few residents and an auto driver, who alerted the local fishermen. The fishermen swung into action and managed to rescue Kavitha at Goodinali near the old bridge and shifted her to a hospital. Kavitha, however, breathed her last in the hospital, Police said. The fishermen also rescued one of the dogs and alerted the Bantwal Police. The other dog swam into safety.

The Police, who traced the vehicle, found that the family belonged to Mysuru and alerted the City Police Control Room staff who in turn alerted the Vijayanagar Police. The Police later discovered that before jumping into the river, the family had called some of their relatives and informed that they would be ending their lives in Mangaluru and told them that Kishan's body was inside their Vijayanagar house. They later switched off their mobiles.

Meanwhile, the relatives rushed to the house and found the keys outside. Dr. Bhyrappa asks CM to Save Kannada from the onslaught of English

CM B.S. Yediyurappa seen extending special invitation to Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa couple at the novelist's residence in Kuvempunagar yesterday, as District Minister V. Somanna, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, MP Pratap Simha, Tourism Minister C.T. Ravi, MLAs S.A. Ramdas and L. Nagendra and others look on.

Mysuru, Sept.29 (SPN&DM)- Acclaimed Kannada novelist and Saraswathi Sanman awardee Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa has asked Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa to save Kannada from the onslaught of English.

Speaking to media persons after meeting Dr. Bhyrappa at his residence in Kuvempunagar on Saturday on the eve of Dasara inauguration, Yediyurappa said that Dr. Bhyrappa has advised him to foster Kannada and the language of our land should not take a backseat at any cost.

Maintaining that Dr. Bhyrappa also gave some useful advice on leveraging the progress of the State, the CM said that it is a matter of profound respect that Bhyrappa is declaring open the festival.

Expressing happiness that his wish of getting Dasara inaugurated by Dr. Bhyrappa has been realised now, Yediyurappa complimented Mysuru District Minister V. Somanna, MP Pratap Simha, MLAs L. Nagendra and S.A. Ramdas and other leaders for their efforts in Dasara preparations.

Replying to a question on Assembly by-polls, Yediyurappa said that the BJP candidates for 15 Assembly segments going to the by-polls will be selected by top leaders under the leadership of State BJP Chief Nalin Kumar Kateel.

Rubbishing reports in a section of the press that confusion prevailed in the BJP regarding allotment of the party tickets to disqualified Legislators from the Congress and JD(S), he said that no such confusion prevailed in the party.

Replying to CLP leader and former CM Siddharamaiah's allegation that the Election Commission had become a puppet of the Union Government, Yediyurappa said that the Election Commission was a Constitutional body, which functions as an autonomous body. He also said that Siddharamaiah was issuing baseless statements out of frustration after losing power.

DC Abhiram G. Sankar, ADC B.R. Poornima, City Police Commissioner K.T. Balakrishna, ZP CEO K. Jyothi and other officials were present when Yediyurappa paid visit to Dr. Bhyrappa's residence.
